SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE MEETING

The committee met on March 21, 2022 and discussed the following:

- Initial concepts for the public art project on Plaza Pacifica. The committee is interested in using video panels so messaging and graphics can be easily updated and customized. The staff will research potential costs and bring back to the committee for evaluation.
- The committee will also develop a calendar of cultural events/activities throughout the year, and establish criteria for inclusion.
- A special tribute for Women's History Month featuring data on California women in farming will be presented as part of the committee's report this month.

Follow-up

- The next meeting of the Community Affairs Committee is TBD.
