ABOUT IMAGINOLOGY

Each April, OC Fair & Event Center (OCFEC) transforms into Imaginology, a free family event produced by OC Fair staff that focuses on STEAM education and hands-on learning.

More than 40,000 children, teens, families and school groups dig into science, technology, engineering, art and math. Imaginology provides unique experiences for attendees of all ages – from preschool to high school, and their parents and grandparents – to build, create, play, observe and interact through activities that help them see the possibilities of a future in STEAM fields.

Youth competitions give students the chance to be recognized for their unique talents and accomplishments. This free event is presented as a community give-back by OCFEC and supported by local partners.

Imaginology features makeshops, demonstrations, competitions, hands-on activities and entertainment, as well as food and fun.

The event debuted in 1989 as Youth Expo and was renamed Imaginology in 2014.

WHAT IS STEAM?

At Imaginology, youth are empowered to explore their imaginations. All exhibitors are required to feature at least one hands-on activity that lands in one of the five STEAM subjects: Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics.

STEAM is ... “a philosophy of education that embraces teaching skills and subjects in a way that resembles real life” (steampoweredfamily.com).

This component of Imaginology is vital to the experience because it is what makes learning fun and relevant. Students are invited to build, interact and explore all kinds of activities using skills that directly correlate with a career.
